Juice Bar Spotlight

The Juice bar is still featuring the Pumpkin Pie Smoothie until December, so be sure to try one while you can! It is all organic and made with pumpkin puree, almond milk, chai, golden milk, vanilla, and cinnamon. It tastes just like a slice of Pumpkin Pie, but less sweet. If you do have a sweet tooth you can ask your juicer to add organic agave, dates, local honey, or a banana.

If you're in the mood for something hot, grab a latte or matcha. You can add a dash of pumpkin pie spice for a little taste of autumn.

Call the Juice Bar to order in advance.

About Dr. Blake D.C. –

Dr. Blake Vickers grew up in Chapel Hill, NC, and later Raleigh, NC. He is passionate about health and the field of chiropractic. Dr. Blake Vickers sustained many concussions while playing soccer and attributes his recovery to chiropractic and functional neurology. After high school, Dr. Blake attended The University of North Carolina at Wilmington where he studied Exercise Science. After, he attended Life University in Atlanta, GA for his Doctor of Chiropractic degree. He did his preceptorship at The Wellness Way Green Bay where he learned under Dr. Patrick Flynn, Dr. Mitch Sutton, Dr. Jason Nobles, and Nicole Saleske FNP. With The Wellness Way approach, Dr. Blake believes in removing triggers from the body whether they are traumas, toxins, or thoughts. This will allow the human body to begin to heal on its own. Dr. Blake believes that the Wellness Way approach is revolutionary and brings a perspective that no other doctors in the world use to treat the human body. Dr. Blake is board-eligible for the Diplomate in Functional Neurology and has incorporated unique ways to treat concussions and traumatic brain injuries when he interned at Hope Brain and Body Recovery Center in Pennsylvania. He is beyond excited to be able to help patients in the Raleigh community learn how their bodies are truly supposed to work and guide them to take control of their own health.
